Hello,

Having been following the recent events concerning the Microsoft Settlement, I feel it necessary to point you towards a website that I feel has made a valid point.

<http://www.pbs.org/cringely/pulpit/pulpit20011206.html>

Robert X. Cringely (of PBS.org) has posted an excellent perspective on the flaws of the Proposed Final Judgement, and visiting his site would be better a course of action than attempting to explain his points to you myself.

Thank you,

Jason Krautle
